SECRET MARRIAGE CONFESSED.

Young People at Evanston Wanted to Avoid a swell Wedding.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Elia G. Burnett, daughter of John A. Head of Wells, Faro Express Company, and George H. Parker, son of L. H. Parker, General Superintendent of the Postal Telegraph Company, both of Evanston, took a trip to Milwaukee on Feb. 4 and were married.

They returned to Evanston and lived with their respective parents. Yesterday the bride consented to her mother and Mr. Parker to have a civil ceremony, and the couple were married.

The groom explained the secret marriage, being simply to avoid a swell wedding, with attendant pomp and show.
